From the Desk of the Parish Director:

Every now and then, someone comments that we have a long prayer list! I usually answer, "Yes, it is our privilege to pray for anyone who requests our prayers. And those on the list and their families are grateful to our community for our prayers."

Intercessory prayer is an important part of our Catholic tradition. Sometimes we need fellow-believers to support us by prayer because we may be too weary, in a crisis, in a time of doubt, or just plain in need of the assurance of the faith of others. We lift up the people on our prayer lists, our prayer board, and our prayer chain so that they may receive spiritual assistance in their faith journey.

Often we receive thank-you notes from those we have prayed for or from their families. Our efforts are appreciated!

Our community has received prayer requests from people all over our country and our world. Praying for each other is a concrete way in which we fulfill our mission statement to "strive to walk hand in hand living as God's people."

Thanks to all who intercede for those who request our prayers--through the prayer chain, the prayer board, weekday mass and Liturgy of the Word with Communion, and General Intercessions (Prayers of the Faithful) at our weekend masses.

Peace to you!

Dr. Alexandra Guliano

All the earth proclaims Your greatness, Lord, God of power and might. Be Thou our inspiration each live long day and night. You made us all to praise You, Lord to offer You our love. You see our thoughts and actions from Your bright throne in the sky, the earth and all its treasures and the stars that shine on high. All earth proclaims Your greatness, Lord, God of power and might, be Thou our inspiration each live long day and night.

My strength and my courage is the Lord, and He has been my savior. He is my God, I praise Him; the God of my Father, I extol Him.

Archbishop Dolan address the issues of the Cousin Center sale, the move of the archdiocesan offices, the law suit settlements, the proposed Archdiocesan Capital Campaign, and the responds to two questions from the callers.

Little Flower Quilters

Raffle tickets for the festival quilt will be sold after each mass next weekend June 30 and July 1.

The "Peace Quilt" is a one of a kind sampler quilt made up of different blocks representing positive wishes.

Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5. For further details or if you are interested in selling tickets, contact Kathy Palmer at (414) 453-4098.

Help Wanted!

The Festival Committee is in need of a Lead Electrician. If you would like to volunteer, please call Mike Wolf at (414) 476-7671.

Mini raffle donations are needed for the festival. Donations of crafts, artwork, gift certificates, jewelry, sport items, gift baskets, etc. are all appreciated. You may drop items off at the parish office or they can be picked up. Contact Shari Egan at (414) 771-1668.

*We are
the Way.*

Students who follow the path of a Catholic education not only benefit from academic excellence, but also from faith formation. Support from the CSA enabled 80 students from Pius XI High School to mesh engineering and Christian principles as part of Project Lead the Way. They learn to demonstrate care for both human beings and creation in whatever they design. This is one example of how the Catholic Stewardship Appeal helps to keep Going to College? Know Someone Who is?

Would you like to help them connect with people of faith when they get there? A new website of the Catholic Campus Ministers of Wisconsin can help. At www.goingtocollege.org, students coming to campus can sign up to receive information about campus ministry at their prospective Wisconsin schools, as well as an invitation to get involved. The college years can be an important time for faith development. Don't miss out on the opportunities to meet great people and experience the prayer, service, and social events that campus ministry offers. If you know someone going to college, make sure they visit www.goingtocollege.org!

Youth Ministry Team Forming

Adults and youth are needed to form a Youth Ministry Team for 2007-2008. This team will be involved with Confirmation preparation, youth activities, and outreach. We hope to hire a part-time coordinator who will oversee the team (10 hour/week position). Help our youth know their faith, grow in their faith, and experience the strength of Christian community. To join this exciting ministry, please call the Parish Office.

Greater Tosa Interfaith

Older adults in our neighborhoods are looking for a little help. They may need a ride, help in shopping for groceries, or help in raking leaves and yard clean-up. Or, you could make a phone call now and then to help ease the loneliness of a person who is homebound.

Reaching out to help someone is a meaningful way to improve the quality of life for the older adults in our neighborhoods. Call Greater Tosa Interfaith at (414) 453-5750 and find out how you can help. You may be just another person to the world, but to an older adult who needs help, you may be the world.

Depression. Are you irritable or easily angered? Are you feeling sad, empty or hopeless? Are changes in your life leaving you feeling overwhelmed? Are you tired and having trouble concentrating or making decisions? These are common signs of depression. Most individuals are unaware of this illness because of the silence depression creates.

Catholic Charities

Relationships. Maintaining healthy relationships with others is not always easy. If you need time to review how your relationship is going with your spouse or your significant other, with your children, friends or other family members, then take a minute to call Catholic Charities - we can help. Call Catholic Charities today at 1-800-771-1114 to make an appointment with a counselor in your area.

Going on Vacation?

Check out www.masstimes.org to find a Catholic church in the area you'll be visiting. Don't have internet access? You can also call (410) 676-6000 to get this information by phone.
